Peter Millward, Mason Robinson and Ian Barker all received Life Memberships at a special presentation night. Peter Millwards has been working with the RSA for many years trying to correct the names on the war monuments in Nelson. Mason has been our burglar for many years and he also takes on projects like improving Marsden Valley RSA cemetery and of course chairing the organising of ANZAC day ceremonies for the last 5 years. Ian Barker has been a member on the RSA committee, and continued the big fight to get the Stoke Memorial Hall back open. The RSA thanks all 3 of you for your service and dedication to the RSA.

This Wednesday, July 1st we have been invited to the Stoke Bowling club to check it out. We will be there from 4-6pm and do our usual raffles. The address is 18 A Ranui St. See you there.
